

---

Cédric Bachelard

In 2006, Cédric Bachelard founded Bachelard Wagner Architekten together with Anne Marie Wagner.

After his degree in architecture at the Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale, Lausanne in 1996, he was working as an architect at Stean Sterf Architects, Berlin until 1999 and at Zwimpfer Partner Architects, Basel from 1999 to 2001. From 2002 to 2006 he was a founding partner of the office GAS Bachelard Geser Architects, Basel. 2008 to 2017 he was professor for design at the Polytechnical College of Engineering and Architecture in Fribourg. Since 2002, he is a member of SIA, and since 2012 at FAS.

---

Personal information

1969 Born in Lausanne, swiss nationality

---

Bachelard Wagner Architects

2006 Foundation of the office with Anne Marie Wagner

---

Committees and associations

Since 2021 Member of the Cityscape Commission Lausanne (CCUA)
Since 2014 Member Committee of admission of the FAS Basel
Since 2012 Member FAS
Since 2006 Member of the Board for Urban Planning and Architecture SIA, Section Basel
Since 2002 Member SIA

---

Teaching

2008 – 2017 Professor of architecture design at the Polytechnical College of Engineering and Architecture of Fribourg (HEIA-FR)
2008 – 2011 Bachelor level
2011 – 2017 Master level

---

Juries

Numerous jury activities since 2008.